TUESDAY EVENING, FEB 21, 1899.

To Give Up Every Vice. "Well, sir," demanded Horatio Bullion, "what particular reason have you to offer for asking me to let you have my daughter Gladys?"

"I—I love her, and she loves me," Reginald Biddlethwaite replied.
"Oh, of course," the blunt old magpate retorted. "I've heard that song from half a dozen others. That's to be taken for granted. But what other qualifications have you?" "I must confess," the trembling young man answered, "that I am not rich, but I can truthfully say that I have no expensive labits. I don't drink I don't gamble. I don't chew tobacco.

I don't smoke. I don't''—
"Hold on!" the millionaire broke in. "That's enough! You'll do. Your board and clothes won't cost much more than the gas you've been burning lately. What I object to is supporting fellows like my other three sons-in-law, who have all the faults you say you have not. I don't mind furnishing the husbands of my daughters with the necessaries of life, but I do hate to have to settle the bills for their luxuries. Now, there is just one other point I want to have settled before I give my consent. "What is that?" Mr. Biddlethwaite

"Promise me that you will not start a newspaper. The others have all tried it, and I can't stand many more such

Vaseline Pancakes.

Cresar's creek, on the Florida coast, was named after a famous old pirate called Black Casar, whose profession added to the risks of marine insurance After the pirates the Florida wreckers came, of whom H. A. Willoughby, in his "Across the Everglades," tells this case of vaseline. They thought it a new variety of the white man's frying fat and, starting a fire, fried pancakes in it. What a dish-pancakes a la Seminole!

A large steamer was stranded on the reef not far from Cape Florida. No soon-er had she struck than the news spread rapidly along the shore. The people for 20 miles around gathered on the beach opposite the stranded steamer. Among hem were a number of Indians from the Everglades, who chanced to be down there and knew what a "wreck" meant to the wreckers:

The steamer, leaded with an assorted cargo, began to break up, and barrels, cases and boxes drifted gradually ashore. There were casks of wine, boxes of soap. cases of bottles of wine and iron and a hundred other articles. The indians seized upon the wine and soon were in a condition that allowed the white men to secure the more valuable prizes.

Messages by Vibration.

Curiously enough, the fact appears according to a recent traveler among the Indians of Catuquinarn, between the rivers Embrya and Embyrasu, that those people have long employed a wire less telephony, but rather after the or der of unwritten science.

It is made by digging a hole in the ground inside a house and laying the ettom with coarse sand, well piled. On this is laid a wooden drum or hollow cylinder of wood, half filled with fine sand and layers of broken wood. bone and powdered mica—the upper rising above the floor of the hut and closed first by bather, then by wood and lastly by india rabber. Outside, the cylinder is packed round with frag ments of wood, leather and resins, and covered with hard rubber at the level

To use this peculiar apparatus the drum is struck by a wooden hammer, and the vibration is evidently transmitted through the soil. The answer is heard in the drum, which acts as a resonator, and messages are thus sent over 1,500 yards from house to house.

"There is a rather crusty old gentleman attending my church," says a De-troit clergyman, "and his absence for several weeks led me to call upon him. He is not a communicant, and I am afraid at times that he is slightly skeptical. He is very pronounced in his po-litical views, and as conversational material ran rather short I sought to interest him by asking, 'How's politics?

" 'How's politics?' he repeated with out a change of countenance. 'How's politics? That's a pretty question for you to ask when you know that I haven't heard you preach for the last seven Sundays."—Exchange.

To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worse form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich', tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, back-ache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working machine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cts. Sold by E. L. Allen and E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

mangers of the Grip. The great danger from la grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reason-able care is used, however, and Cham-berlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dangerous disease. It will cure la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. H. Janney, Druggist, 701 King St.

For a quick remedy and one that is perfectly safe for children let us recommend One Minute Cough fure. It is excellent for croup, hoarseness, tickling in the throat and coughs. Edgar Warfield, jr., corner King and
